

Western Canada Theatre (WCT) is searching for a dynamic, creative HEAD OF WARDROBE to join our production team in beautiful Kamloops, BC. This full-time, seasonal opportunity is ideal for someone who is an artist, an artisan, a thrifty shopper, knows their way around a sewing machine, and is an inventive problem-solver. The Head of Wardrobe has primary responsibility for the costumes, wigs & makeup for our productions, making good use of limited resources while supporting our designers' vision for the world of our productions on stage. Reporting jointly to the Technical Director and Production Manager and working closely with the Producer and Artistic Director, the Head of Wardrobe has responsibility in the following areas:

- Responsible for the construction, storage, and maintenance of all costume elements;
- Maintains the highest standards of production quality, safety and artistry;
- Maintains a clean, organized and safe wardrobe workshop, including tools and costume storage areas;
- Assists the Technical Director in the costing, budgeting and scheduling of productions & tours;
- Works with designers to realize their designs as accurately as possible with available resources;
- Liaises with stage management teams to support rehearsals, including scheduling fittings, establishing rehearsal costume needs and ongoing wardrobe maintenance/care;
- Researches, orders and shops for all costume pieces and materials;
- Supervises and schedules additional labour, production interns, casual staff and volunteers needed for the completion of all costume elements;
- Attends production meetings, staff meetings, technical rehearsals, and note sessions as scheduled;
- Produces all required paperwork for stage management teams and running crews, in regards to maintenance and cleaning requirements, etc.;
- Recommends equipment repairs, replacement and renewal as needed;
- Assists the Properties and other departments as required;
- Assists the Technical Director and Production Manager with the planning and organization of all wardrobe elements and paperwork leading up to tours and co-productions;
- Assists the Technical Director and Production Manager with all outside rentals of costume elements;
- Acts as a resource to other arts community members;
- On occasion, trains and/or leads production interns, casual staff and volunteers;
- Other related duties as required.

The 'Ideal' Mix of Skills, Experience & Traits Might Include...

- 2-3 years experience in a wardrobe/costume shop, or similar;
- Ability to interpret designs and patterns;

- Able to work well both independently and collaboratively within a team;
- Excellent organizational, time-management and communication skills;
- Training in technical theatre, wardrobe, costume design or sewing, an asset
- Able to follow organizational safety policies, including working with chemical products;
- Experience with Microsoft Office an asset
- A valid Class 5 Driver's License an asset

About WCT

Western Canada Theatre tells our stories on the traditional & unceded territory of Tk'emlúps te Secwepemc, whose people are the traditional stewards of this land.

Since 1975, Western Canada Theatre has been producing innovative, entertaining, and educational theatre for audiences in Kamloops, throughout BC's Southern Interior, and across Canada. We have grown into one of the largest producing theatres in BC and have had a remarkable impact on the national theatre landscape: producing premieres of important new Canadian and Indigenous work, training some of Canada's finest theatre professionals, and showcasing our work and our artists across the country through touring and co-productions.

Our production department operates the 700-seat Sagebrush Theatre, and the 150-seat flexible configuration Pavilion Theatre, as well as our producing shops, storage & touring operations. For more information, please visit us at wctlive.ca

Equity, Diversity & Inclusion Statement

Western Canada Theatre is committed to diversity in the workplace and we encourage all qualified candidates to apply, and to self-identify if they so choose. We hope to receive applications from candidates with a broad range of backgrounds including, but not limited to: race, ethnicity, indigeneity, gender, gender-identification, sexual orientation, class and physical ability (though our office is currently on a second floor, and as such not wheelchair accessible). We are a parent-friendly workplace, with several parents on staff. We invite anyone with access needs or requiring accommodation in the application process to contact the Managing Director.

Safe & Respectful Workplace Statement

Western Canada Theatre is committed to the creation of a respectful work environment and supports those who have experienced or witnessed toxic behaviours. We stand up against behaviour that undermines the dignity or self-esteem of any individual, or which creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment. We invite all our Artists and Staff to partner with us in speaking up against harassment and standing together in addressing problems when they arise.

About Kamloops

Kamloops is our home and is a great place to live and work. We offer you the opportunity to thrive in a city that boasts a reasonable cost of living, gorgeous terrain, active lifestyle, and, of course, the sunny weather of BC's Southern Interior. For more information, visit Kamloops.ca
